"the affairs of the district – and to
"this he took his oath, and Sir you with all so
"to transhorry and all the Noble
"of the District with assembly there "to morrow – then he said and requested me to ask

After this he & Thomas Bayston in a very deceitful manner, had in them of the Bantam men of the Village, whom we do not know – without our knowledge, and about two hundred people belonging to one of his Villages, and taking advantage of the Police being so unwell & unable to speak, he surrounded the Magistrates of Transhorry and in his mind to waylay them the Dyer and Chamberlain Woodley the Members of the Public assembly house – at this time one Mr Thomas Thomas was called to Hadavor Pottam –
At this time Mr Police Inspector Cattaway saw my boy who was paying very sick, and was much astonished at all this tumult and disturbance, and tho' lying on his bed he arose he sent and ordered to the Bantam cars and the Peons to come to him and by signs he signified them how they were to act & march to with Mr. Ryot and the two have without their knowledge and consent of the Pawnee Indians could have any deciding without our knowledge.

We told the Pawnees we did not know that Pawnee Ryot intended to act so deceitfully, but that we were not known to each nation with the arrangement of the chiefs we had come to inquire about it—so and took our oath, that we did not come with any wicked designs respecting the occupation of Pacha a Tonba Bays & also told them that Pawnee Ryot had taken the Choctaw oath to us—

After this Tarawarawaw Tyan and Chamnaguan Pacha Ryot were heard from prison and Pettarra Shoregar were sent for from Nadoca Pettarra, and we went to our respective Wigwas—

Eight days after the Pawnee Ryot without our knowledge took the two Pacha Ryots prisoners, and confined them again with some more Indians— and sent a man all round the district to order all the Nations to assemble at Tarawarawy Town, which they accordingly did— After this we all assembled he went with us to Nadacoa Pettarra to bring away Pettarra Shoregar
